

SR020423

Resolution to Congratulate the Miami Hockey Team

Stephen Pauwels, Off-Campus Senator
Author

Jonathan Abrams, Off-Campus Senator
T.J. White, ASG Overachiever
Marin Lavelle, King of the Hawkheads
Sponsors

Submitted to Student Senate
30 March 2004

Whereas: With a record of 3-1-1 in Ohio Cup designated matches, the Team earned its 6th Ohio Cup, and its first in 3 years and;

Whereas: The team finished in second place in regular season CCHA play, only one goal from winning the regular-season championship and;

Whereas: The team earned a third place finish in CCHA tournament play behind Michigan and Ohio State with a 1-1-0 record and;

Whereas: The team earned a birth into the NCAA tournament, only the third time in the program's history and;

Whereas: Derek Edwardson, the team's captain and Hobey Baker award finalist, was recognized as the CCHA Player of the Year and, Enrico Blasi, current head coach for the RedHawks, was recognized as the CCHA Coach of the Year and;

Whereas: Derek Edwardson, Andy Greene, and Greg Hogeboom were named to the CCHA All-Conference Team and;

Whereas: Coupled with the success of our football team, Miami continues to gain national notoriety for our high quality athletics program, which will aid the university in recruiting, not only for sports, but for all types of students;

Therefore Be it Resolved: The Associated Student Government, as the collective voice of the student body, extends congratulations to the Miami University Hockey Team, for their significant achievements during the 2003-2004 season.